Dear Superintendent:

On behalf of Interim Commissioner Tahoe and the Board of Regents, I write to congratulate you on your district having a school that has been designated as a Recognition School. This school is among those in New York State that have high academic achievement, growth and graduation rate and have made progress during the 2018-19 school year.

Enclosed is a certificate that celebrates the success of your district in supporting educational excellence.

We applaud your efforts and look forward to assisting your district in having all of its students achieve college and career-ready standards.

Should you have any questions and/or need additional information, please contact the Office of Accountability, via email at accountinfo@nysed.gov.

Sincerely,

Jason Harmon
